

E-Gaming Federation expands collaboration with National Law University, Delhi through MoU

National, 2nd February, 2024: The E-Gaming Federation (EGF), India's foremost skill-gaming industry body signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with National Law University (NLU), New Delhi, one of the leading law universities in the country for knowledge development, research, and capacity building in gaming and technology policy and related areas. The MoU signed on 2nd February 2024 underscores the commitment of both organizations to strengthen India's policy framework and contribute to the enhancement of standards in the gaming and technology sector through cutting-edge research and innovation.

As part of the strategic partnership, EGF, and NLU will collaborate on various projects to analyze and discuss contemporary issues of public concern, and their legal implications and dialogue to exchange information contributing to the advancement of the gaming and technology sector.

Speaking on the occasion Prof. (Dr.) G.S. Bajpai, Vice-Chancellor, NLU said, "EGF's concerted efforts to encourage the online gaming sector are noteworthy and inspiring. We are enthusiastic about this knowledge development journey with EGF and believe that our collaborative effort will provide informed insights to promote legal awareness and achieve political, social, and economic justice. We look forward to the opportunities for capacity-building and collaborative learning that this partnership will bring."

Expressing delight over the MoU, Anuraag Saxena, CEO of EGF said, "EGF is developing a community in pursuit of education, research, and scholarship in the field of online gaming in India. By fostering an environment of collaboration and shared learning, we aim to recognize the importance of advocating for progressive policies that aid innovation, ensure consumer protection, and promote responsible gaming. We are excited to join hands with National Law University and think that this alliance would be a significant step towards leveraging academic expertise for the benefit of the industry stakeholders and wider community."

The MoU was signed by Prof. (Dr.) G.S. Bajpai of NLU and Mr. Anuraag Saxena, CEO of EGF. On this occasion, Dr. Raghav Pandey, Assistant Professor, NLU and other faculty members were also present.

EGF is the unified voice of the online skill gaming sector in India, representing the views of an overwhelming majority. The Federation counts the top 5 Gaming Developers and Operators in India, including a Unicorn amongst its members.

About E-Gaming Federation (EGF) :

The E-Gaming Federation (EGF) is a not-for-profit organization, founded under the Societies Regulation Act to protect consumer interest and self-regulate the Indian e-gaming sector. By developing a standard framework and operational guidelines based on the principles of safe, transparent, fair, and responsible gaming, EGF endeavors to build a unified voice shaping a favorable policy environment for regulated online gaming.

With an objective to bring a positive change in perception regarding the e-gaming industry, EGF endorses 'Responsible Play' to protect players by allowing them to minimize or stop indulging in gameplay beyond their means or for excessive periods. EGF-certified online gaming platforms offer responsible play features to the players that are intended to ensure a fair and safe online gaming experience while protecting players from any adverse consequences of online gaming.

LinkedIn | Twitter | Facebook | Instagram

For more information, please contact:

Niharika Sneha: niharikasneha@egf.org.in | + 91 88008 61353

Parvathi M : parvathim@avianwe.com | +91 9773975232